

Professional Development & Consultation

for Early Childhood Professionals

WHO WE ARE

Northwest Center Kids IMPACT is a non-profit based in Seattle, Washington that provides professional development and consultation on inclusive practices, empowering educators to support children with challenging behaviors and disabilities.

OUR MISSION

To make inclusive early learning accessible to everyone. We believe with our low-cost training and support, you will have the confidence and skills to meet the increasingly diverse needs of children in your care.

COMMON TOPICS WE SUPPORT

Autism Spectrum Disorder

Challenging Behaviors

Language Development

Partnering with Families

Self-Regulation

Sensory Strategies

OUR HISTORY

Northwest Center was founded by parents who wouldn't rest until children with disabilities across the U.S. gained access to public education. IMPACT builds on that legacy of inclusion, drawing on 55+ years of experience in inclusive early learning and our Early Intervention program.

WHO WE SERVE

- Early Learning
- Education Coaches
- QRIS State Agencies
- K to 3rd Educators
- Home Visitors
- Early Intervention Therapists
- Families

On-Demand Online Course Catalog

Check out our growing catalog of learn at your own pace online courses

Customized Consultation Services

Customized support provided to your specific program

Live Professional Development

We offer live trainings on a variety of inclusion focused topics

